SENIORS

We, the 1966 Senior Class, were the last class to enter UHS as freshmen, and the "last," as many of us remember bitterly, to be initiated. We were also the last class to vite in a student council election as eighth-graders, the last to attend high school in the present junivr high, and the last class to finance a junior-senior banquet.

But under the leadership of the since departed Morris Engle and Fred Johnson, whom we shanghaied from the class of '65, we were the "first" to originate the "Foreign Festival." We also have the dubious distinction of being the only class to ever be low on the totem pole two years in a row.

We were many things to many people. To Mrs. Oliver we were existentialists; to Mr. Burgett, another group of coddled kids; and to Mrs. Sherer, another brood to herd off to college. Among the faculty and student body we found many friends and acquaintances. Throughout our years at UHS we were taught to seek knowledge and self-truth. Most of us thrived. If we didn't we at least survived.

SENIOR SKIT

On December 23, 1965, station U.H.S. broadcasting with a force of 23 motorcycles, from the Urbandale Senior High School went on the air for the first and last time.

The afternoon program consisted of a weather report by weatherman Stormy Gale (no reflection on Mr. Burgett). The weekly "Meet the Press" was replaced by a special news feature, "Meet the Mess." This program was followed by "Hitler's Heroes" which took place in a German concentration camp during WW II. Any similarity between it and a program of a rival station was purely intentional. Next came the continuing drama "Mate 'in Place" brought to its listeners two (too many) times a week by U.H.S. and sponsored by the Jolly Green Giant. Ending the afternoon's broadcast was the all time favorite "The Senior-Tear Club," with their song

S-E-N (now it's time to say)
I-O-R (our skit is over)
T-E-A-R-S.

Financed mostly through funds made from the profits of its ice cream machine, the Student Council makes a significant contribution to the UHS scene.

This year's council inaugurated two new programs. First, they established an experimental hall monitor system, and later in the year they began a campaign to get more UHS publicity in the local paper, the Urban News-Sun. Also this year the council was given the responsibility of moderating a discussion group at the state student council convention.

Chosen for outstanding exhibition of character, service to fellow students, and academic accomplishment, the members of the National Honor Society have united their efforts toward the betterment of Urbandale High School. With the guidance of first semester sponsor Mrs. Salem, the members of this organization planned and conducted the fall installation of new members. The two to receive this honor were seniors Jeanne Smith and Dave Kissinger. Members are inducted twice annually. Not shown here are the juniors and seniors who were installed in the spring of 1966.

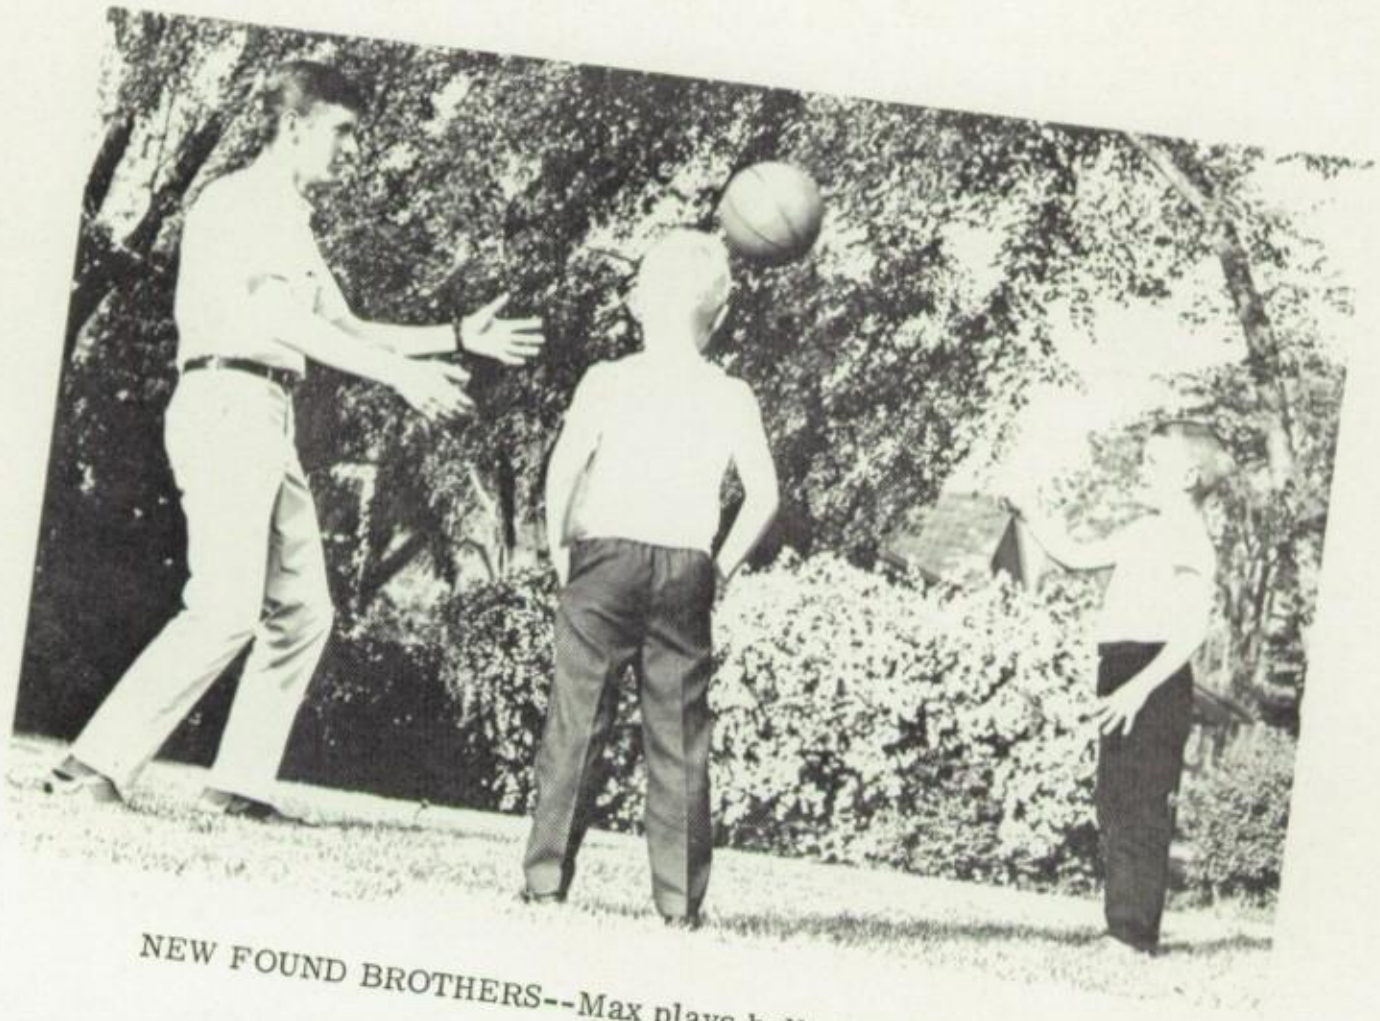
COMES TO URBANDALE

FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL--Max readies himself to meet new friends.

It was a year of new experiences for both Max Messner of Sterzing, Northern Italy, and his American family, the Darrell Dickinsons. Since Max arrived a day later than first expected, the excitement was greatly increased. Having overcome that obstacle and the apprehension that perhaps they might not be able to recognize him when he did arrive, the Dickinsons, backed up by a host of friends, greeted Max on August 18, 1965. Settled back at home, the whole family sat down to a typical American meal, corn-on-the-cob, only to find that some explanation of the proper eating procedure was needed. A new life was launched.

While in America Max found our standard of living, cars, and girls most interesting. He hopes to attend college studying politics and international relations.



NEW FOUND BROTHERS--Max plays ball with Jeff and Eric.

SOCK HOP--One of Max's favorite pastimes was dancing.

STUDYING--Politics and international relations interest Max. He hopes to attend college in either U. S. or Italy.

Anna Gonzalez came to us for ten weeks from Buenos Aires in early January under an AFS exchange program. Staying with the Lawrence Hindert family, Anna was impressed by American stores, large appliances, and ice hockey. She has now returned to Argentina, where her father owns a large cattle ranch, to begin her second year of college, majoring in psychology.

Also from Buenos Aires Alfredo Schiappacasse came to us through the American Youth Exchange for ten weeks. His father is a textile broker and owns two large ranches. While here he was impressed by the contrast between Argentine and American teen-age fads.

Recognition must be given to the other major group of journalists at UHS, the Chatter Staff. Even though they had their usual problems with publishing deadlines, the reading material was generally enjoyable and was improved with the addition of a few critical editorials, which served to stir up interest in various school problems. This did not prevent the end of the Chatter, however. High publishing costs dictated that the staff turn to printing school news in the News-Sun.

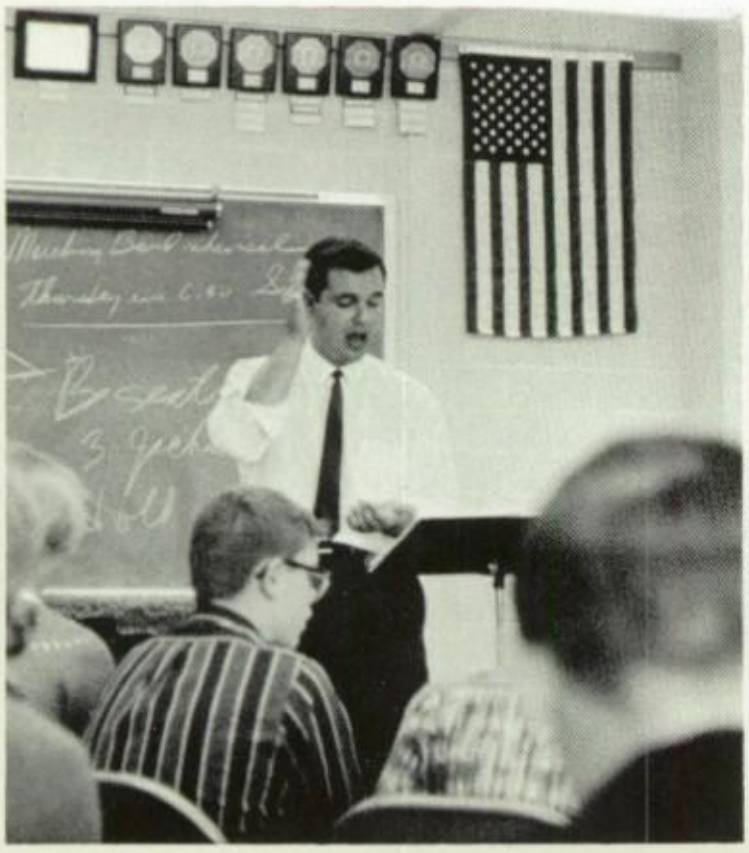
MIXED CHORUS. . . A YEAR OF GROWTH



In its second year under the direction of Mr. Frank Aiello, the seventy members of the high school chorus played an active roll in our school life. They gave two concerts, one at Christmas and another in May; they were asked to sing on the Don Soliday television show; they placed a quartet in the All-State Chorus; they received two I ratings (Carrell Dickinson and Terry Hughes) out of nine entrees at the state small groups contest; and they sang at Commencement and Baccalaureate.

The increased size of the chorus speaks well for the school and Mr. Aiello.

FRONT ROW: J. Bowen, I. Hill, C. Bailey, J. Kehm, J. Hill, J. Waters, S. Newcon, C. Dickinson (accompanist), J. Herrick (accompanist). SECOND ROW: L. Ackerman, J. Lorenger, R. Shaw, C. Smith, L. Johnson, A. Runyon, C. Grover, C. Rogers, D. Anderson, C. Proctor, B. Oscarson, S. Green, Mr. Aiello.

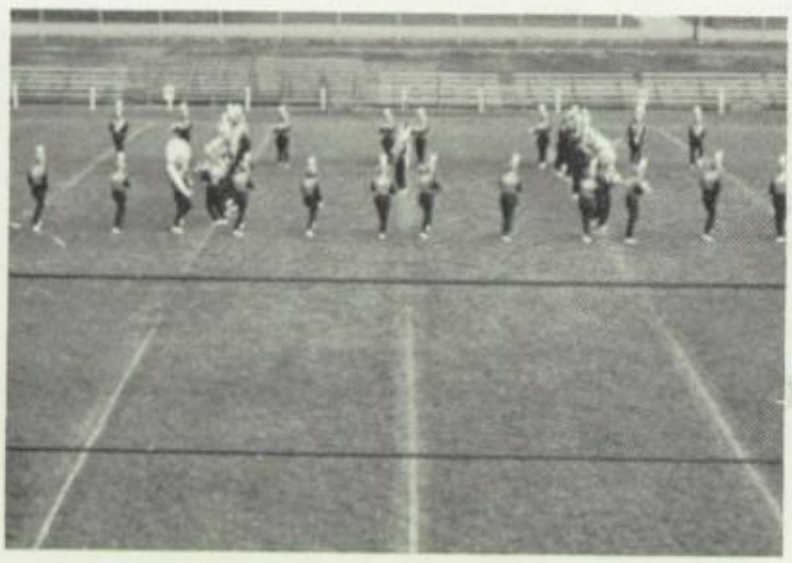
After a month of tedious practice, the mixed quartet composed of Mike Carey, Janice Herrick, Carrell Dickinson, and Tom Nugent, was rewarded by seeing their names posted on the "Accepted" list at the tryouts for All-State Chorus. Two solid days of rehearsals during Thanksgiving vacation were followed by the glorious concert itself. The strains of "John Saw Duh Numbah" and "The Last Words of David" will be remembered forever.

SPRING CONCERT

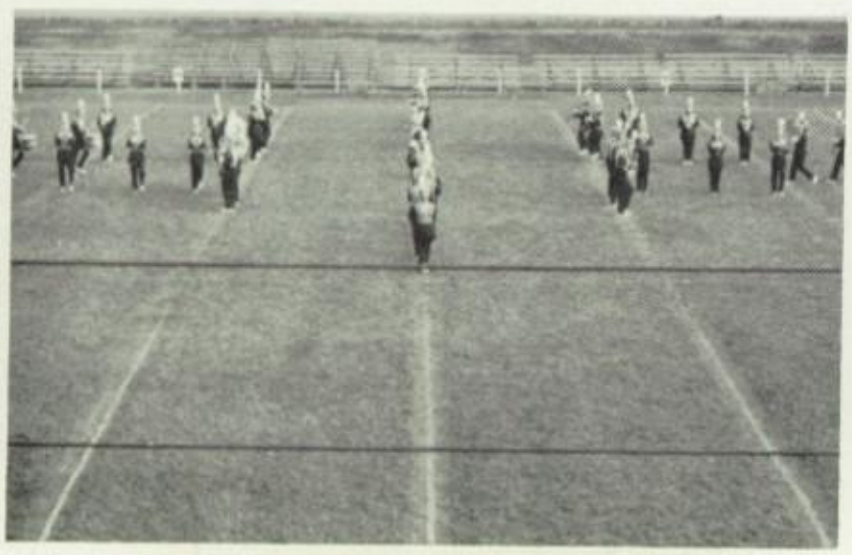
The high school chorus presented a program of variety Tuesday evening, May 17. The first part of the program consisted of a group of numbers performed by the entire chorus (upper left). One of the numbers featured a recent addition to the chorus, guitar and drum accompaniment (lower left). Next the program turned to solos and ensembles such as Trio B (Jerene Hill, Carrell Dickinson, Irene Hill) (upper right). For the finale the chorus presented highlights from SOUTH PACIFIC. Accompanied by Janice Herrick (upper middle) the chorus added a number of solos, such as Nancy Frerichs' "I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Out of My Hair" (lower middle) and Dixie Green's "A Wonderful Guy" (lower right). Dressed in the gay colors of an imagined Pacific island life, the performers set an enjoyable informal atmosphere to end a wonderful evening.

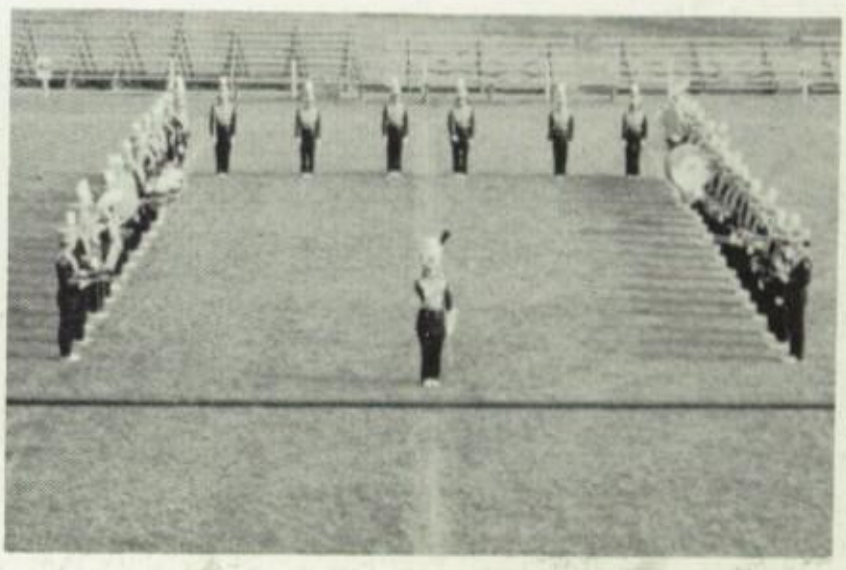
READY ... MARCH--Where there's a parade, there's a band as is the case as the Urbandale Marching Band makes its annual appearance in the Homecoming parade.

MARCHING BAND . . . STEPS OFF TO ANOTHER FINE YEAR



High stepping to another successful year, the Urbandale Blue Jay marching band, directed by Mr. Franklyn Mapes, earned a Division I rating at state contest, participated in the Ankeny and Iowa State University band festivals, and provided entertainment at four home football games. Majorette for the year was JoAnn Kehm. Band Major was Craig Hanson.





CONCERT

OUR DIRECTOR--Mr. Franklin Mapes, is the head of instrumental music.

Moving up to Class A, the Blue Jay band faced tougher competition in 1966 at both small and large group contests.

At the small groups contest at West Des Moines, UHS received 19 one ratings for solos and ensembles which compares favorably with past performances.

The stiffer competition at large group contest brought Urbandale the first two rating in years, however.

Also included in the concert band season were three public concerts, one of them a pops concert performed in a cafe atmosphere, and a performance of the stage band at a student assembly.

During 1965-1966 Troupe 2198 of the National Thespian Society did its best to create interest in drama and to promote the standards of excellence that have become a tradition under Mrs. Redman. One highlight of the year was the semiannual initiation held in December. New members took part in a "spontaneous" production of the melodrama, Fireplace (UHS Thespians answer to Peyton Place). Other activities included ushering at the Des Moines Community Playhouse, a joint meeting with several Des Moines schools, and a tea held for Mrs. Redman in appreciation for her help and patience.

Pep Club was marked this year by a continuous roll of white paper and a bottomless jar of tempera paint. The girls made signs and spirit rousers for all high school athletic events and turned out in full voice to support their teams.

Throughout the year President Linda Boller carried a paper punch instead of the traditional gavel most presidents carry. Her back up crew included Cassie Bailey, vice-president; Rose Zimmerman, secretary-treasurer, Debbie Jacobs, delegate-at-large; and Sheila Holubar, sophomore representative.

Activities through the year included a Christmas program at the Polk County Home, giving skits at Pep Assemblies, and hanging pep signs at the Ice Arena before the basketball games.

The year was ended with the election and installation of new officers and the Spirit Jug Party. This year UHS honored the class of '66 whose loyal devotion to their teams won the Spirit Jug for their class. The class of '68 ran a close second and are to be congratulated for their efforts.

To all those who supported our teams the Pep Club says thank you.

CROSS COUNTRY . . .

ROCKEY WINS HONORS

The cross-country story of 1965 was Daryl Rockey. A senior, but out for the first time, Daryl won the individual titles in both the Conference and State cross-country meets, placed second in the Conference mile team race, and finished ninth in the State mile.

The major team feat was a tie for second in the State mile team race at Grinnell. The team also placed second in the Conference mile team race, tenth in the Mike Augustine Invitational, third in the Conference cross-country meet, and sixth at the State cross-country meet.

Under their new track coach Mr. Gayle Palmer the UHS trackmen turned in a respectable season. Besides a third place finish at the suburban conference meet, the Blue Jays won the team title at the Central and Charger (Chariton) Relays.

The team was not overly endowed with outstanding individuals but there were a few: Daryl Rockey brought the school record in the mile down to 4:38.9 and placed fifth at the Class A state outdoor meet; Dave Wathen won the conference championship in the 880-yard run and placed fifth in the same event at the state indoor meet; Bob Wedemeyer tied the school 440-dash record of 52.1, won the conference championship in that event, and turned in some fine high-hurdle races; and Craig Lamb raised the pole vault record to 11' 2".

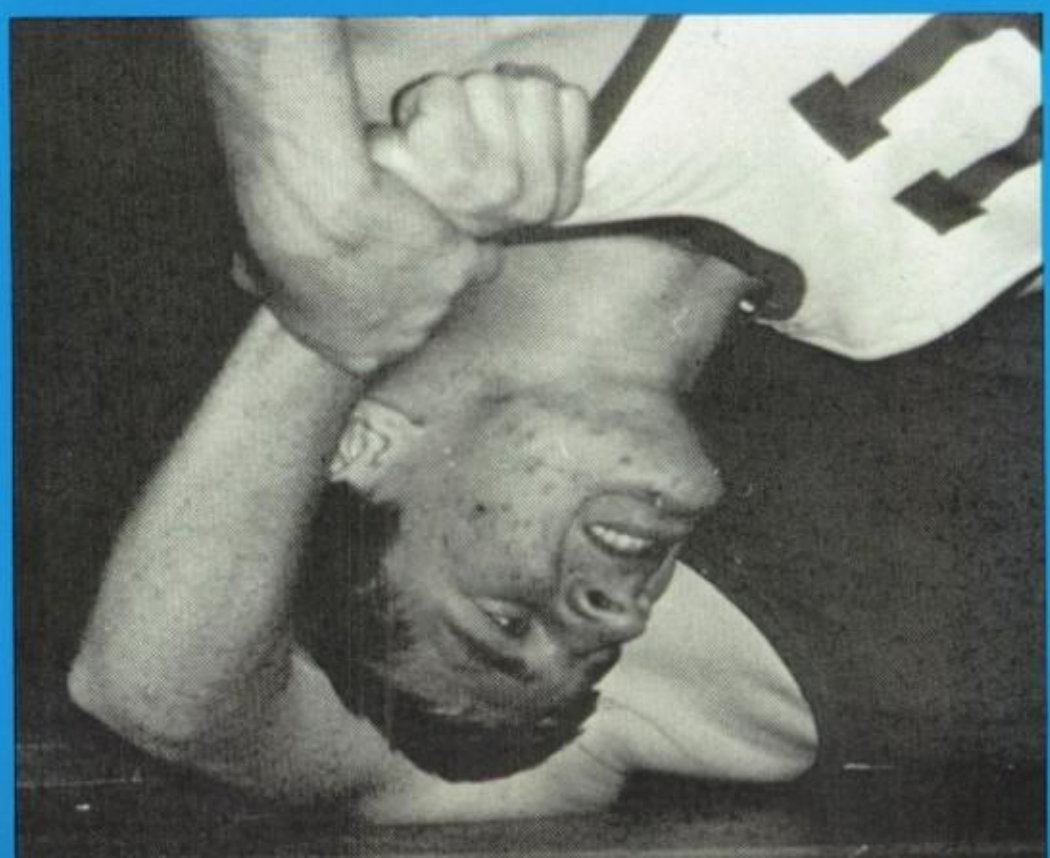
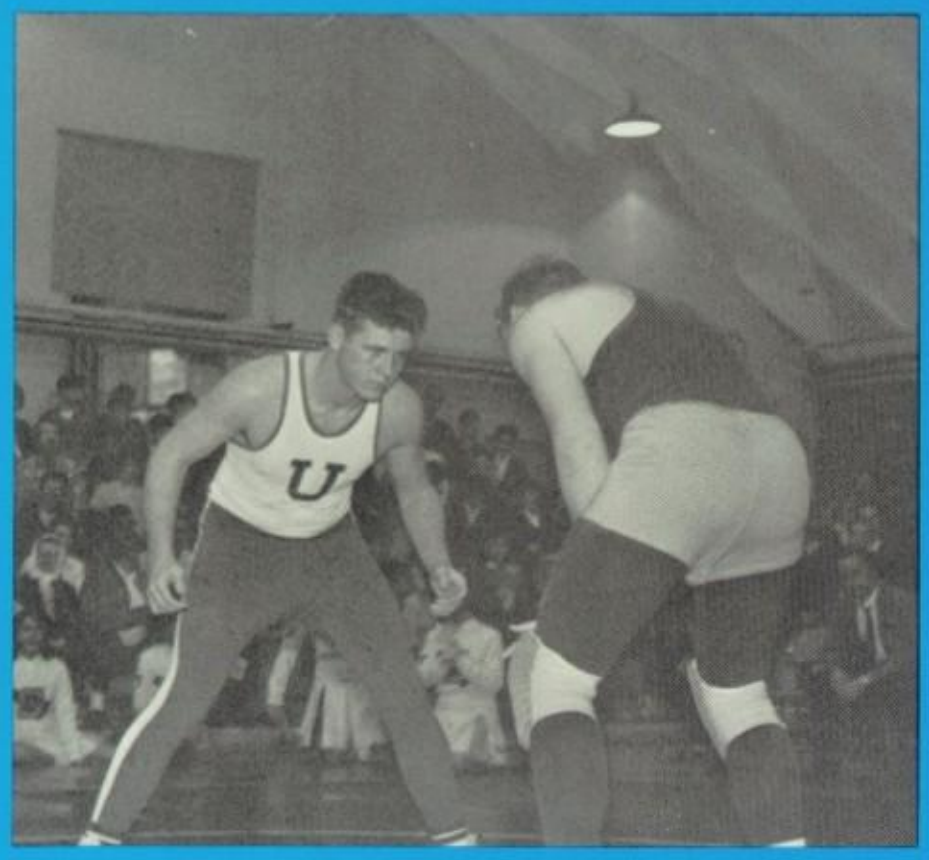
Once again the UHS grapplers turned in a fine season. First, the Blue Jays tied with Ankeny for the conference championship by compiling a 9-3 dual meet record. They then advanced to a third place position in the sectional tournament and a fourth place in district competition.

Led by Captain Mike McKenzie, voted most valuable UHS matman, Urbandale had many outstanding individual performers. McKenzie was sectional and district champion and finished second in the state meet. Bob Wedemeyer and Mike Carey both won championships at the conference tournament and Mike advanced to the state tournament by placing second in district competition. Other conference champions were Garry Graham and Bob Prince, who was chosen as the '66-'67 captain. Sophomore Dave Ritchhart was voted the most improved wrestler.



TOUGH RIDE--Duane Walker (127) wears opponent down with head-in-the armpit.



ON THE SPOT--In order to tie Saydel, UHS needed a pin by Mike Carey (HWT). Mike used his skill well but Saydel wrestler Gary McDaniel was able to escape with a decision.

GIRLS' GOLF - GREAT IMPROVEMENT MAKES FIRST SEASON

A new sport was added to the activities at UHS in 1966--girls' golf. Even though inexperience brought poor results in meets, the girls, under the direction of Coach Nicola, improved greatly. They started the season shooting a 191 for six holes by four girls and finished with a 154. There were a number of outstanding individuals: Heather Wedin, who carded the lowest score (36); Ruth Ann Rogers, who had the lowest average (42); and Mary Ellen Robinson, who had an average of 43. The high points of the season came in the 80-78 overtime victory over Ankeny and the 70-53 runaway at S. E. Polk. The season ended with a heartbreaking but hard fought 71-65 loss to S. E. Polk in the first sectional game.

The outstanding individuals on this year's team were: Chuck Rizzuti, all-conference and the team's leading scorer; Craig Lamb, second team all-conference; Bob Chase, honorable mention; and sophomore Mike Connelly, who cleared over 150 rebounds from the boards.

1965 HOMECOMING

Despite a 26-19 defeat by North Polk and the winning of the float contest for the third year by the class of '67, homecoming, centered around the theme "Countdown to Victory," was a big success. The festivities began shortly after noon of Friday, October 8, with the traditional homecoming assembly. The program included the crowning of Queen Belinda Wilson and a drama department skit spoofing a James Bond theme.

Immediately afterward the parade began to form. It was at that time that the Seniors discovered that their float, which under normal conditions would have won easily, had suffered a high degree of wind damage. Thus the better protected junior float was able to win narrowly. It was rumored that the juniors had burnt offerings and sacrificed a Honda to an ancient Maya wind god the night before to swing it, but no definite proof has ever been found.

COUNT DOWN TO VICTORY

VICTORY IS HOUR

VICTORY TIME

That night the football team put up a good fight against the then undefeated Comets, but they were unable to stop North Polk's strong offense.

But the disappointments of defeat were soon forgotten at the dance entitled "Out of This World." Music was provided by the Strangers.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

In November the junior class presented Dorothy and Herbert Field's comedy, ANNIE GET YOUR GUN.

It is the story of a shy, awkward back woods girl named Annie Oakley (Jeri McCrary and Janet Helmsing), who has a remarkable ability to shoot. She is discovered by a sharpshooter with Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show named Frank Butler, (Mark Oppedal) with whom she immediately falls in love. Frank makes her his assistant and falls in love with her, but Buffalo Bill (John Connelly) decides to give Annie a spectacular stunt to make her the star. Annie thinks Frank will be delighted, but instead he leaves Annie and the show. Only after some time and considerable swallowing of pride on Annie's part do they get together.

Annie, in addition to promoting her own love affair, helps Winnie Tate (Lissa Erickson) and Tommy (Jack Swanson) to elope much to the dismay of Dolly Tate (Jo Ann Kehm).

Annie's devoted sisters, Minnie (Vicki Oxenford) and Jessie (Cassie Bailey), and her brother Little Jake (Dean Hatch) added to the hilarity of the play with their antics.

This year's play added several songs from Irving Berlin's musical version of the story.

"Gosh, Winnie, you got prettier while I was away."

"Am I an Indian yet?"

"You're doing everything you can to make me quit! You hate me!"

"Pull!"

"You're getting rosier and daintier every day!"

"Please tell my messenger that you will come, so we can start to ice the cham-a-gini..."

"There's no business like Show Business."

"Little Jake can read some. Go on and show him. Sound it out."

THE MOUSE THAT ROARED

"Wee sleekit cowrin' timrous beastie"

An adaption of Leonard Wibberly's novel, THE MOUSE THAT ROARED, by Christopher Sergel was presented by the Senior class on April 14 and 15.

The play is a satire depicting the attempt of Queen Glorianna (Pam Thorson) of Grand Fenwick, a small, little-known country in Europe, and her advisors, Count Mountjoy (Mike Carey) and David Benter (Dave Kissinger), to lose a war with the United States in order to get foreign aid. They persuade the naive Tully Basom (Scott Springer) to lead an attack on New York City in broad daylight. Unfortunately Tully captures Professor Kokintz (Dennis Cox) and his newly developed Q-bomb. Since this bomb is able to destroy thousands of square miles, the President (Dave Wathen) and Secretary of State (Daryl Rockey) are forced to sue for peace. All works out in the end, though. Grand Fenwick keeps the bomb to insure world peace, the United States solves Grand Fenwick's economic problems by paying reparations for losing the war, and Tully marries Glorianna.

GLORIANNA--Duchess Glorianna (Pam Thorson) speaks to court.

TOURISTS--Janelle Funte, Carrell Dickinson, and Gloria Evans ask Tully, "How can a country five miles by three claim native birds?"

"WELL, WHAT SHOULD I SAY?"

ONE, TWO.....Soldiers Bob Hedberg, Tippy Chase, Tom Nugent, Chuck Rizzuti, Jim Keane and Dan Gooch, regroup at Broadway and 161st Street.

"THEY'VE STOLEN OUR LABEL AND EVERYTHING!"

"CHIEF! WE'RE AT WAR WITH GRAND FENWICK!"

"UNCLE, WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME WE WENT TO WAR?"

SPRING DANCE

The night of March 12 was a night of gaiety and romance. The occasion was the annual spring dance, featuring the Jimmy Gale Trio, centered around the theme Mardi Gras. The dance began at eight with strains of music and ended at eleven with the last flicker of the last candle.

ONE ACT PLAY

Linda Boller, Rodney Turner, Jack Swanson, Pam Thorson, Patty Hand, JoAnn Kehm, Mark Oppedal, Dennis Cox, Jeanne Smith, Paul Hawkins, Scott Springer, Sandy Baumgart, Nancy Irwin, Dave Kissinger.

TUNNEL OF LOVE

Attracted by the raucous appeals of barker Chuck (Dennis Cox), many are drawn to the Tunnel of Love. Such was the case of an old couple, Florrie (JoAnn Kehm) and Bert (Mark Oppedal). This year's one act play "Tunnel of Love" is a series of flashbacks showing a younger Florrie (Pam Thorson) and Bert (Jack Swanson) suffering through many marital disappointments. The conflict centers around Florrie's insistence on clinging to the vain hope that Bert will be able to make good the promises he made before marriage. Bert, though, is never able to climb above the bottom rung of the ladder of success. Unable to face Florrie's constant nagging, Bert attempts suicide in the Tunnel of Love. However, he fails even in this. In the end Florrie begins to accept him, and they decide to try again. Also adding to the story were Florrie's neighbor, Mrs. Tinnamam (Linda Boller), Willie (Dave Kissinger). a young girl (Jeanne Smith), a young man (Paul Hawkins), the doctor (Rod Turner), and spectators (Scott Springer, Sandra Baumgart, Becky Johnson, and Nancy Irwin).

The play received a "I" at district contest and a "II" at state contest.

Better PIONEER® BRAND corns: Computers help us develop them faster

Pioneer researchers are well on the way to solving one of corn breeding's knottiest problems: Out of thousands of new crosses they can make, which are the best ones?

They team their genetic know-how with electronic computers to bring farmers higher-yielding corns faster. Pioneer's computers don't replace researchers. They save them time by helping predict which inbred crosses merit further testing.

(High yields are the prime goal, but Pioneer scientists also look for other features corn growers want—such as desirable plant type, uniformity and adaptability to modern corn farming.)

Computers match up inbreds with desirable traits like disease and insect resistance, strong stalks and roots, deep meaty kernels on slim tough cobs—qualities that give farmers hybrids that make "extra-profit" yields.

The payoff for corn growers? Simply this: They get improved New Generation varieties in a shorter time—and all meet Pioneer's tough test standards.

Research like this produces hybrids that meet the fast-changing needs of modern corn growers. It's another reason why Pioneer growers harvest high-profit yields, year after year.

YOUNKERS

"Satisfaction Always"

Lynd Madsen

Barbara Berendts

Each year YOUNKERS offers a program for teenagers from the Des Moines area high schools . . . TEEN BOARD for junior and senior girls, and BOYS ADVISORY BOARD for boys. The young people selected to represent their respective schools are chosen for their leadership qualities, high scholastic standing, personal recommendations from the school advisors, and fellow members of TEEN BOARD, plus their interest and ability in retail and fashion. They participate in several special fashion shows during the year, give talks in their schools and to other groups on good grooming, publish a monthly newsletter, and work in various departments each Saturday.

YOUNKERS salutes the representatives from Urbandale High School for a job well done.
